Main Street Bank Proudly Sponsors Big Cats Lineman Camp

WHEELING, W.Va. -- Main Street Bank is proud to be the exclusive banking sponsor of the first annual Big Cats Lineman Camp held June 4th in Wheeling, W.Va.

Bob Heffner, who previously served as an assistant football coach with Lafayette teams that captured the 1988 and 1994 Patriot League championships, will head this year's camp. In addition, the Ohio Valley Greyhounds are endorsing the event, and each camp attendee will receive a free ticket to the Greyhounds game following the camp.

The one-day, intensive, non-contact camp focuses on offensive linemen techniques, scheme, and drills. The Big Cats Lineman Camp is open to all senior high and middle school interior offensive linemen.

The camp is from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the WesBanco Area. Parents and coaches are welcome to attend.

Applications for the camp are available at Main Street Bank, located at 2001 Main St. in Wheeling.
